

RULES OF THE BUY MY CANCER FUND
RUN BY THE ALIVIA ONCOLOGICAL FOUNDATION
OF 1ST JUNE 2022

RECITALS

These Rules set out the operational rules of the fund (hereinafter called the "Fund") related to the implementation of the Buy My Cancer campaign. The Rules set out, among other things, the rules of disposing of the financial resources collected under the Fund. The Fund is run by the Alivia Oncological Foundation with its registered office in Warsaw (KRS No 00000358654) (hereinafter referred to as the "Foundation") within the scope of its activities specified in the Fund's statute. The Buy My Cancer campaign is a non-profit initiative conducted by the Alivia Oncological Foundation in co-operation with partners, including the National Institute of Oncology in Gliwice and Ogilvy Sp. z o.o. A detailed description of the Campaign is available on its dedicated website at: www.buymycancer.org.

GOALS OF THE FUND AND ITS OPERATIONAL METHODS

1. The primary goal of the Fund of the Buy My Cancer Campaign is to ensure the financing of activities and initiatives that may directly or indirectly contribute to saving the health or life of oncological patients, or improving the quality of their life.
2. The Fund is created by the Foundation as of the effective date of these Rules. The Fund will operate until it is dissolved by the Foundation.
3. The primary source of supply for the Fund is financial resources obtained through the "Buy My Cancer" campaign. During the Campaign, the Foundation acquires donations and grants benefactors unique digital NFTs (non-fungible tokens) related to digital works of art created on the basis of images of patients' cancer cells.
4. From the Fund, the Foundation spends financial resources within the limit of the funds collected therein.
5. The financial resources of the Fund are deposited on interest-free bank accounts of the Foundation operated by Alior Bank with its registered office in Warsaw, Poland. All payments and disbursements connected with the Fund are made using these bank accounts.
6. The financial resources collected under the Fund may be transferred by the Foundation to other entities in the form of financial donations or grants (hereinafter referred to as "Disbursements"):
 - a. natural persons, i.e., patients (hereinafter referred to as "Private Beneficiaries"),
 - b. institutional entities running diagnostic, curative or research activity that may contribute to the implementation of goals of the Fund (hereinafter referred to as "Institutional Beneficiaries").
7. The performance of Disbursements in favour of a Beneficiary is conditional upon their prior favourable qualification by the Foundation on the basis of criteria and processes set out in paragraph 3 of these Rules.
8. Disbursements made to Private Beneficiaries under the Fund will be social welfare benefits (hereinafter referred to as the "Benefit").
9. Using the Fund, the Foundation can create and liquidate provisions for expected future tax liabilities related to the implementation of the Campaign.

QUALIFICATION OF PRIVATE BENEFICIARIES AND INSTITUTIONAL ENTITIES

1. In the case of Private Beneficiaries (referred to in par. 2 point 6a):
 - a. The qualification is carried out at the written request of the patient or his representative. The request should contain at least:
 - (1) the date and place of preparation of the request,
 - (2) the full name and contact details of the requesting person,
 - (3) the name of the bank and the number of the applicant's bank account to which the social welfare benefit is to be transferred,
 - (4) the personal identity number (PESEL) or other data making it possible to ascertain the requesting person's age,
 - (5) a copy of the medical documentation containing a diagnosis of the disease,
 - (6) the amount of the requested benefit,
 - (7) a description of the current life situation of the requesting person and the planned expense from the funds as part of the Benefit,

 - (4) be in a life situation or medical situation requiring immediate help.
 - c. The decision on the qualification of a patient is made by the Management Board of the Foundation or people authorised by it. The decision is made within no more than 10 working days from the receipt of the complete request of the patient by the Foundation.
 - d. The decision on qualification is made on the basis of the information submitted in the request, the provisions of these Rules, the current organisational and financial capacity of the Foundation, the provisions of the statute of the Foundation and other information, documents or copies thereof presented by the requesting person (including, but not limited to, medical documents and documents relating to the requesting person's financial situation).
 - e. The Foundation reserves the right:
 - (1) to make a negative decision in spite of the fulfilment of the criteria described above,
 - (2) not to specify the reasons for making a negative decision,
 - (3) to require that the requesting person provide additional explanations and documents concerning the identity, health and financial situation of the requesting person,
 - (4) to require that the requesting person submit original documents for review,
 - (5) to award an amount of the Benefit other than contained in the request.
 - f. In each case, the requesting person is informed by the Foundation about the decision concerning their qualification.
 - g. The Foundation is not responsible for any losses of the future beneficiary resulting from a false statement in the request.
2. In the case of institutional entities (referred to in par. 2 point 6b):

- a. The decision concerning the selection of the institutional entity is made by the Foundation on the basis of written applications.
- b. Applications from entities should contain at least:
 - (1) the date and place of preparing the application,
 - (2) the name and contact details of the applicant,
 - (3) the name of the bank and the number of the applicant's bank account to which the Disbursement is to be made,
 - (4) the amount of the requested Disbursement,
 - (5) a description of activities that will be financed from the Disbursement,
 - (6) a description of the expected results of activities financed from the Disbursement,
 - (7) a statement on having read and undertaking to comply with the Rules of the Fund,
 - (8) personal data and signatures of persons authorised to represent the requesting entity.
- c. The decision on the qualification of an institutional entity is made by the Management Board of the Foundation or people authorised by it. The decision is made within no more than 10 working days from the receipt of the complete application from the entity by the Foundation.
- d. The decision on qualification is made on the basis of information submitted in the application, the provisions of these Rules, the current organisational and financial capacity of the Foundation, the provisions of the statute of the Foundation and other information, documents or copies thereof presented by the applicant (including, but not limited to, medical documents and documents relating to the financial situation of the applicant or patients).
- e. The Foundation reserves the right:
 - (1) to make a negative decision in spite of the fulfilment of the criteria described above,
 - (2) not to specify the reasons for making a negative decision,
 - (3) to require that the applicant provide additional explanations and documents,
 - (4) to require that the applicant submit original documents for review,
 - (5) to award an amount of the Benefit other than contained in the request.
- f. In each case, the applicant is informed by the Foundation about the decision on qualification.
- g. The Foundation is not responsible for any losses of the future beneficiary resulting from a false statement in the application.
